Call for a general strike and street rallies in protest against the execution of Mohsen Shekari

Iran's ruling murderers executed young protester Mohsen Shekari. We offer our deepest condolences to Shekari's family and the people of Iran for this loss. We will not let this crime go unanswered.

The ruling executioners imagine that by executing Mohsen Shekari they can intimidate us. However, they're only showing their own weakness and helplessness. We will mobilise the whole world against them. We call upon students, workers, pupils, the bazaar traders, office workers and all sections of the people to stop working on Saturday, December 10, and join the demonstrations and marches in the main streets and in the neighbourhoods and squares of the cities. We also ask Iranians living abroad to come out in all the cities of the world, together with the people inside Iran, against execution and the murderous Islamic regime.

With nationwide strikes, demonstrations, marches and street protests, we can stop the executions and make the ruling executioners pay heavily for their deeds.

Down with the regime of murder and execution!
Long live the revolution!
